WELCOME

Are you ready for your next adventure? Then join in the fun with the Oklahoma City Parks & Recreation Department. We're offering hundreds of programs including day camps, performing arts, swimming and aquatics, nature, gardening, fishing, youth and adult sports, and much more. With so much to do, there's no denying that Summer starts with OKC Parks!

For the first time ever, we're offering more than twenty individual day camps, programs and clinics. Explore the great outdoors, sing or dance on stage, create colorful works of art, play ball or learn about the wonders of science. Camps are designed to maximize children's learning in a safe, fun and invigorating environment.

If you're ready for splashing good fun, our aquatics section is ready to welcome you at our family aquatic centers and community swimming pools. Swimming lessons for children of all ages and abilities are available throughout the summer, along with specialty swim camps, Jr. Lifeguarding programs, recreation swim teams, Dive-In Cinema and our first-ever Mother-Son Luau.

Is sports more your speed? Then take a look at the wide array of adult leagues for men and women ages 18 and older. From co-ed league softball and flag football, to men's and women's basketball, and even pickleball, we have just the right league to get you in the game.

With free fishing clinics, golf, plus senior trips and activities rounding out our roster of programs, there's no shortage of summertime fun. So get out, start a new family adventure and explore the outdoors with activities at your local ball field, swimming pool or park!

Nature Play Group

Wednesdays 10am Ages 2-6

Hands-on nature fun is the objective of our Nature Play Group. This weekly program encourages nature interaction in a safe, fun environment. Activities include hands-on games, crafts and other fun. The play group is not a drop-off program and we ask that parents stay in the park while the play group takes place.

Register in advance at okc.gov/active

Cost: $10 per month

Nature Smart Starts

Wednesdays 11:15am Ages 6-10

It's arts and science gone WILD! Join us for nature stories, games and activities planned especially for elementary-age children. Wear sturdy shoes and dress for mess! Part of our "Growing with Nature" series of programs.

Register in advance at okc.gov/active

Cost: $10 a month

Nature Tales

Thursdays & Saturdays at 10am Ages 3-7

Our popular Nature Tales introduces young adventurers to the world of nature using stories and hands-on activities. A different book is read each week followed by an activity based on that book's theme.

GREEN EARTH PROGRAMS

Green Earth Scouts

Saturdays 11am-noon Ages 7-9

Green Earth Scouts bridges the gap between our Nature Tales program and the Green Earth Guides. Scouts learn about nature and conservation by helping with our exhibit animals and participating in other park activities under the guidance of a park naturalist.

Green Earth Guides

Saturdays 2-4pm Ages 9-13

Green Earth Guide youth volunteers assist park naturalists in a variety of ways. From helping to set up for weekly education programs to assisting with animal feeding and care, Guides get a hands-on look at the work of a park naturalist.

Green Earth Rangers

Sundays 2-5pm Ages 14-18

Rangers provide in-depth assistance to park staff by helping with program preparation, animal care, public education and light trail maintenance. They also help with larger special events held at the park and serve as park liaisons with the public.

FISHING
