"WILD" AMERICAN EXPLORERS

Join OKC Parks & Recreation, Martin Park Nature Center, Friends of Martin Park and the Metropolitan Library System for "Wild" American Explorers! In the months of August through October, join us at locations across the metro to learn about cultural anthropology, historical use of natural resources and how the availability of natural resources influences societal culture. Historical re-enactments of prominent figures such as J. J. Audubon and Mark Twain discuss land and natural resource ethics and how those ethics evolve over time.

Funding for this program is provided in part by a grant from the Oklahoma Humanities (OH) and the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH). Any views, findings, conclusions or recommendations expressed in this program do not necessarily represent those of OH or NEH.

Tree Climbing for Kids Event ID 7287
 Thursday, June 22 8-11am
 For Ages 5-17 Cost: $15 per person

In this fun class, we will learn about various knots and climbing trees. Then we will go outside and learn how to get our ropes up into a tree and do a little hanging around. There is nothing like relaxing in the shade of a tree with a harness and swinging in the breeze.

Garden Highlights Tour Event ID 7373
 Saturday, July 8 9-10:30am
 For All Ages Cost: FREE

Come take a stroll in the Gardens and Arboretum led by staff and see what you have been missing. This is your opportunity to come visit the Gardens and have questions answered related to trees and flowers.

Kids Terrarium Event ID 7385
 Wednesday, July 12 9-10am
 For All Ages Cost: $5 per person

Make a terrarium from a recycled pop bottle. Bring your own plastic bottle and we will turn it into a terrific terrarium! We will supply the know-how, soil and plant.

Bonsai Demonstration Event ID 7447
 Saturday, July 29 10am-noon
 For All Ages Cost: FREE

Come watch as staff expertly take a juniper and transform it into a newly trained bonsai. This will help take the mystery out of Bonsai as you see how it is done and what to look for when purchasing plants. This is a wonderful opportunity to ask those questions you have always wanted answered about the art of bonsai. You are welcome to bring your own bonsai for helpful suggestions too.

Clay Time for Kids Event ID 7624
 Tuesday, August 1 8:30-11am
 For Ages 8-13 Cost: $10 per person

Let's go and collect clay from a natural source in Will Rogers Park and then let our imaginations go free while we create art pieces. Wear closed-toed shoes and clothes that can get dirty and wet! Note: There is a hike involved in this expedition!

Herb-icious Class Event ID 7880
 Thursday, August 3 9-10:30am
 For Ages 6-12 Cost: $10 per person

We will be touring our veggie patch, talking about and tasting herb plants and how we can grow them successfully. We will then plant some to take home for use in the kitchen or for that quick smell/taste while outside.

Children's Tree Mask Event ID 7881
 Saturday, August 12 10am-noon
 For All Ages Cost: $8 per person

Go on a brief tour of the arboretum to look at trees and the differences that can be seen between them, then head inside and make your own tree inspired mask. To keep from overheating we will also have to make some homemade, hand-churned vanilla ice cream. All supplies provided.

Miniature Wire Tree Workshop Event ID 7884
 Saturday, August 19 10am-noon
 For All Ages Cost: $15 per person

Learn about bonsai and how they are styled, then create your own miniature wire bonsai out of copper wire. This tree will last indefinitely with no need of water or fertilizer! (Children under 9 will need an adult helper.)
