Long-Term Issue - Procedural Justice

Procedural justice is defined as the idea of fairness in court processes to resolve court cases in a fair and equitable manner. It is the philosophy and practice which promotes respect, neutrality, and transparency which ensures court patrons have a voice in the criminal justice process. The continuing need to implement and promote procedural justice, if not addressed, will result in:

- Negative public perception
- Decreased court patron satisfaction, confidence, and compliance
- Increased instances of unfair and inequitable justice

Strategies to address the Long-Term Issue

- Continue to review and revise policies, procedures and services.
- Continue to participate in community outreach through community programs and partnerships.
- Ongoing training on procedural justice with all Municipal Court employees annually.

Long-Term Issue - Skilled and Diverse Workforce

The increasing difficulty to recruit, develop and retain an adequately compensated, skilled and diverse workforce due to reduction in staffing levels, changes in technology, and applicant and employee expectations, if not adequately addressed, will result in:

- Delays in court processes
- Dissatisfied court patrons
- Increased liability

Strategies to address the Long-Term Issue

- Continue to look for innovative ways to incentivize and retain employees.
- Continue to work with the Human Resources Department regarding employee recruitment.
- Develop a comprehensive court focused training program with documented procedures.
- Strengthen the current succession plan.

Long-Term Issue - Technology Services

The increase in court patron expectations for court information and electronic services, combined with the reliance on automated systems, if not adequately addressed, will result in:

- Lost opportunities for increased efficiency
- Decreased levels of court patron satisfaction with court services
- Disruption in court services and processes

Strategies to address the Long-Term Issue

- Continue improving information systems to enable the Municipal Court to expand the services that it provides to court patrons.
- Continue working with the Information Technology Department and vendors to increase the number of electronic transactions.
- Identify new software or technology solution to implement electronic filing.
- Municipal Court will offer a virtual option for select court sessions.
