

Oklahoma City Human Rights Commission

Complaint Intake Form | Housing

05/2023

The Oklahoma City Human Rights Ordinance prohibits discrimination in employment, housing and public accommodations* and provides a conciliation or mediation remedy for those involved in a discrimination complaint.

If you believe you have been aggrieved by a discriminatory act or practice related to housing in Oklahoma City, you may complete this Complaint Intake form to start the complaint process.

If your complaint is related to employment or public accommodation, complete the appropriate form found on the Oklahoma City Human Rights Commission website: okc.gov/hrc.

Please note, discrimination complaints must be submitted to the Oklahoma City Human Rights Commission within 90 days of the alleged discriminatory act or practice.

After receiving the Complaint Intake form, the Compliance Officer for the Oklahoma City Human Rights Commission will contact you (typically within 10 business days) for more information to determine whether the Commission has jurisdiction over your complaint of discrimination.

The Compliance Officer may give you additional information explaining how to file a Sworn complaint to initiate a formal conciliation or mediation proceeding with the Human Rights Commission. Or, the Compliance Officer might refer you to another agency that specializes in handling your specific complaint of discrimination.

Find out more about laws that prohibit discrimination by referring to the State statutes and municipal ordinance by visiting okc.gov/hrc.

 Place of Public Accommodation: Any place of business offering services or facilities to the general public, such as hotels, motels, cafeterias, restaurants, swimming pools, skating rinks, bowling alleys, retail stores, amusement parks, theaters, and public transportation services or facilities.

* "Conciliate" or "Conciliation" as used in the OKC Human Rights Commission Ordinance: To seek to mediate and resolve such a complaint by agreement between or among all involved parties.
