Note: The application submittal deadlines provided here do not guarantee that your application will be heard on the meeting date indicated. Rather, the deadline indicated means that on that date your submittal must: 1) be complete and accurate with no outstanding issues that have not been addressed; and 2) the required application fee must have been paid. If you have a complex application with issues that need to be addressed by staff, you are encouraged not to wait until the last day of the submittal period to file your application.
